

MUSC OB/GYN Residency

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

The MUSC Department of OBGYN is COMMITTED to fostering a culture that VALUES individuals working together with DIVERSE IDEAS AND BACKGROUNDS to improve the health of our patients.

Program Mission

- To train skilled specialists in the delivery of high quality, compassionate, accountable, and innovative care to all women of South Carolina regardless of age or background

Grand Rounds

- Concerted effort to include DEI topics
- Recent topics include Inclusive Health Care Teams and Health Equity

Antiracism in Medicine

- Faculty and resident discussion group
- Upcoming workshop on reducing disparities in prenatal care

M&M

- Consideration of the impact of health disparities on each M&M case

DEI Chief Resident and Committee

- Resident driven initiatives

Resident Recruitment

- Holistic application review
- Implicit bias training for application reviewers and interviewers

2023 Resident Retreat

For more information about our resident program or DEI initiatives, email our Program Director Dr. Goodier goodier@musc.edu, Assistant Program Director Dr. Meglin meglin@musc.edu, DEI Chief Resident Jackie Dallaire dallaire@musc.edu, or Program Manager Stacey Livingston westbury@musc.edu.