

RADIATION ONCOLOGY

Department of Radiation Oncology

SCOPE OF PRACTICE

PGY-2 – PGY-5

---

PGY-2

- Attend all daily planning conferences held in the departmental conference room.
- Evaluate with the attending all new patients including history, physical examination, and review all pertinent laboratory and radiographic findings.
- Assess other possible treatments including surgery, chemotherapy or immunotherapy.
- Participate in appropriate tumor boards with the assigned attending.
- Examine all assigned patients each week in the clinical examining area.
- Participate in all simulations with the appropriate attending.
- Participate in all brachytherapy cases and intra-operative consultations with the appropriate attending.
- Assume responsibility for on-call coverage with the appropriate attending after 4-6 week introduction period.
- Examine patients who have completed treatments and have returned for follow-up examinations.
- Request appropriate laboratory and radiographic examinations on assigned patients.
- Keep a list of all current patients under treatment and review regularly with the assigned attending.
- Simulate patients for therapy with proper attending supervision.
- Prescribe appropriate medications for assigned patients.

RADIATION ONCOLOGY

Department Radiation Oncology

SCOPE OF PRACTICE

PGY-2 – PGY-5

---

- Coordinate post treatment care with the nursing staff and with physicians from other departments.
- Respond to any emergencies within the department and notify the attending physician and May Day team in a timely manner.
- Dictate and correct patient consultations/follow-up notes in a timely manner in the method determined by the attending physician.
- Complete treatment planning note at the time of completion of treatment planning.
- Complete treatment summaries at time of completion of treatment.

PGY-3

- Attend all daily planning conferences held in the departmental conference room.
- Evaluate with the attending all new patients including history, physical examination, and review all pertinent laboratory and radiographic findings.
- Assess other possible treatments including surgery, chemotherapy or immunotherapy.
- Participate in appropriate tumor boards with the assigned attending.
- Examine all assigned patients each week in the clinical examining area.
- Participate in treatment planning, simulations clinical management of patients with the appropriate attending.
- Participate in all brachytherapy cases and intra-operative consultations with the appropriate attending.

RADIATION ONCOLOGY

Department Radiation Oncology

SCOPE OF PRACTICE

PGY-2 – PGY-5

---

- Supervise the PGY-2 resident in new procedures under the leadership of the attending physician.
- Assume responsibility for on-call coverage with the appropriate attending.
- Examine patients who have completed treatments and have returned for follow-up examination.
- Request appropriate laboratory and radiographic examinations on assigned patients.
- Keep a list of all current patients under treatment and review regularly with the assigned attending.
- Simulate patients for therapy with proper attending supervision.
- Prescribe appropriate medications for assigned patients.
- Coordinate post treatment care with the nursing staff and physicians from other departments.
- Respond to any emergencies within the department and notify the attending physician and May Day team in a timely manner.
- Dictate and correct patient consultations/follow-up notes in a timely manner in the method determined by the attending physician.
- Complete treatment planning note at the time of completion of treatment planning.
- Complete treatment summaries at time of completion of treatment.

PGY-4

- Attend all daily planning conferences held in the departmental conference room.

RADIATION ONCOLOGY

Department Radiation Oncology

SCOPE OF PRACTICE

PGY-2 – PGY-5

---

- Evaluate with the attending all new patients including history, physical examination, and review all pertinent laboratory and radiographic findings.
- Assess other possible treatments including surgery, chemotherapy or immunotherapy.
- Participate in appropriate tumor boards with the assigned attending.
- Examine all assigned patients each week in the clinical examining area.
- Participate in treatment planning, simulations clinical management of patients with the appropriate attending.
- Participate in all brachytherapy cases and intra-operative consultations with the appropriate attending.
- Supervise the PGY-2 and PGY-3 residents in new procedures under the leadership of the attending physician.
- Assume responsibility for on-call coverage with the appropriate attending.
- Examine patients who have completed treatments and have returned for follow-up examination.
- Request appropriate laboratory and radiographic examinations on assigned patients.
- Keep a list of all current patients under treatment and review regularly with the assigned attending.
- Simulate patients for therapy with proper attending supervision.
- Prescribe appropriate medications for assigned patients.

RADIATION ONCOLOGY

Department Radiation Oncology

SCOPE OF PRACTICE

PGY-2 – PGY-5

---

- Coordinate post treatment care with the nursing staff and physicians from other departments.
- Respond to any emergencies within the department and notify the attending physician and May Day team in a timely manner.
- Dictate and correct patient consultations/follow-up notes in a timely manner in the method determined by the attending physician.
- Complete treatment planning note at the time of completion of treatment planning.
- Complete treatment summaries at time of completion of treatment.

PGY-5

- Attend all daily planning conferences held in the departmental conference room.
- Evaluate with the attending all new patients including history, physical examination, and review all pertinent laboratory and radiographic findings.
- Assess other possible treatments including surgery, chemotherapy or immunotherapy.
- Participate in appropriate tumor boards with the assigned attending.
- Examine all assigned patients each week in the clinical examining area.
- Participate in treatment planning, simulations clinical management of patients with the appropriate attending.
- Participate in all brachytherapy cases and intra-operative consultations with the appropriate attending.

RADIATION ONCOLOGY

Department Radiation Oncology

SCOPE OF PRACTICE

PGY-2 – PGY-5

---

- Supervise the PGY-2, -3, and -4 residents in new procedures under the leadership of the attending physician.
- Assume responsibility for on-call coverage with the appropriate attending.
- Examine patients who have completed treatments and have returned for follow-up examination.
- Request appropriate laboratory and radiographic examinations on assigned patients.
- Keep a list of all current patients under treatment and review regularly with the assigned attending.
- Simulate patients for therapy with proper attending supervision.
- Prescribe appropriate medications for assigned patients.
- Coordinate post treatment care with the nursing staff and physicians from other departments.
- Respond to any emergencies within the department and notify the attending physician and May Day team in a timely manner.
- Dictate and correct patient consultations/follow-up notes in a timely manner in the method determined by the attending physician.
- Complete treatment planning note at the time of completion of treatment planning.
- Complete treatment summaries at time of completion of treatment.

Chief Resident

- Attend annual MUSC Chief Resident Retreat

RADIATION ONCOLOGY

Department Radiation Oncology

SCOPE OF PRACTICE

PGY-2 – PGY-5

---

- Design and coordinate resident academic schedule, including resident- and attending-led topic-based presentations, case-based didactic sessions, and guest lectures, for academic year with the Program Director.
- Design and coordinate resident rotation schedule for academic year with the Program Director.
- Design and coordinate resident call schedule for academic year with the Program Director.
- Design and coordinate orientation for incoming/new residents with the Program Director.
- Design and coordinate orientation for rotating medical students, residents, and fellows with the Program Director.
- Attend regularly scheduled Graduate Medical Education/Chief Resident meetings.
- Address resident-specific concerns and issues as they arise, acting as intermediary between residents and Residency Program Director/Faculty.
- Attend all daily planning conferences held in the departmental conference room.
- Evaluate with the attending all new patients including history, physical examination, and review all pertinent laboratory and radiographic findings.
- Assess other possible treatments including surgery, chemotherapy or immunotherapy.
- Participate in appropriate tumor boards with the assigned attending.
- Examine all assigned patients each week in the clinical examining area.
- Participate in treatment planning, simulations clinical management of patients with the appropriate attending.

RADIATION ONCOLOGY

Department Radiation Oncology

SCOPE OF PRACTICE

PGY-2 – PGY-5

---

- Participate in all brachytherapy cases and intra-operative consultations with the appropriate attending.
- Supervise the PGY-2, -3, and -4 residents in new procedures under the leadership of the attending physician.
- Assume responsibility for on-call coverage with the appropriate attending.
- Examine patients who have completed treatments and have returned for follow-up examination.
- Request appropriate laboratory and radiographic examinations on assigned patients.
- Keep a list of all current patients under treatment and review regularly with the assigned attending.
- Simulate patients for therapy with proper attending supervision.
- Prescribe appropriate medications for assigned patients.
- Coordinate post treatment care with the nursing staff and physicians from other departments.
- Respond to any emergencies within the department and notify the attending physician and May Day team in a timely manner.
- Dictate and correct patient consultations/follow-up notes in a timely manner in the method determined by the attending physician.
- Complete treatment planning note at the time of completion of treatment planning.
- Complete treatment summaries at time of completion of treatment.